The Senior Class of 1931

Central High School

Lima, Ohio

Dedication

To MOTHER, we, the Senior Class of 1931 of Central High School, dedi-

Mother—the one who is most interested in all we do;
the one who is invariably fair and impartial in all her dealings; who has our welfare at heart, who always stands by us in time of greatest need, who is always helpful; and who builds wonderful dreams for our future.

May we do our best to succeed in all we do and make her dreams come true.

Foreword

In all the ancient world, Greece alone excelled in sports, learning, education, architecture, philosophy, and all the higher arts. No other people have been able to deal so comprehensively with philosophy of life.

Today the modern world is ours. We have more advantages, and more opportunities to succeed, than they had ever dreamed existed. Let our purpose be to obtain a firm educational foundation — our achievement to utilize it to its greatest extent.

CITY PARK

*It was not that nature had shed o'er the scene
Her purest of crystal and brightest of green;
'Twas not the soft music of streamlet o'er hill—
O, No! It was something more exquisite still.*

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

*Oh Central High with spirit grand,
We think of other days;
Our thoughts like milestones backward turn,
When on this school we gaze.*

SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

*O South High School! O South High School!
O make thy triumphs ring;
For scholars here in ample throng,
For thee we rise and sing.*

LIMA PUBLIC LIBRARY

*Silent, majestic, yon great marble stands
Lending vision to hope and inspiring hands,
A sentient soul throbs with passing years
Giving strengthened faith to scurrelous seers.*

FRANKLIN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

*Youth, blatant youth, o'er spreads your stone;
Age and dignity are yet unknown;
But spirit roused from courageous stock,
On Life's brazen door places key and lock.*

A Board of Education has a very distinctive and a very far-reaching responsibility.

Its task, fully done, furnishes an anchorage for those purposes and a high-road for such achievements as would advance the common good.

Lima is indeed fortunate in having a Board of Education fully devoted to the carrying out of this unique responsibility.

SENIORS

Class Officers

Members of the class of 1931, from now on you will rank in society as adults. You hold in your hearts an ideal whose power for easing Life is infinitely more potent even than that immeasurable contribution of the ancient Greeks toward Beauty. It is a power they scarce suspected, a power which you dream of as the ideal yet fear to have faith in it as practical. It is the power of Love. Take into the scope of your Love folks who need you. Love itself will be your rich reward.

—GRACE K. MCCLURG.

Senior Class History

REMEMBER way back when—the greenest of green freshmen entered the now sacred portals of our Alma Mater-to-be? The Class of '31 started right to work and elected as their freshmen pilots: Eugene Broxon, president; Barbara Siferd, vice president; Margaret Grouver, secretary; and Eleanor Wise, treasurer. For the Student Council the representatives were Richard Taylor and Emerson Beery. At the election of Barbara Siferd as a cheerleader, a distinct and unusual honor was bestowed on the freshman class.

At last, casting the timid freshman spirit from it, the class entered into its sophomore year. It was beginning to scale the heights. The officers chosen were: Eugene Broxon, president; Betty Tolford, vice president; Margaret Grouver, secretary; and Eleanor Wise, treasurer. Two more members, Eugene Broxon and Barbara Siferd, were added to the two already on the Student Council. The class at once showed its mettle in athletics by placing second in the annual field meet and winning the flag rush from the freshmen. The class was also well represented in scholarship and extra-curricular activities.

And then—the thrill of entering the third year of high school—as upper classmen, trying not to boast of the new position and yet proud of it.

The class again elected Eugene Broxon, president, with Barbara Siferd, vice president; Emerson Beery, secretary; and Margaret Grouver, treasurer. The Student Council members were Emerson Beery, Eugene Broxon, Laurence Larsen, Zoe E. Schnabel, Barbara Siferd, and Richard Taylor.

The outstanding events during the Junior year were the Junior play "Man or Mouse" directed by Mrs. Jessie Rhonemus and presented by an able cast. The Junior Hop was given in honor of the departing seniors.

And now—reading in the very last chapter of the History of the Class of '31, it had scaled the heights. The result of the elections showed that Eugene Broxon was once again to head the class with Emerson Beery, vice president; Margaret Grouver, secretary; and Eleanor Wise, treasurer. Additional Student Council members were: Mary Louise Steiner, Jo Smith, and William Haneke.

Many students stood high scholastically. Among those were: Alice Mary Basden, Roberta Early, Neva Magher, Barbara Siferd, Mary Louise Steiner, Laura Louise Walters, Zoe Emily Schnabel, Robert Craig, Raymond Mikesell, and Eleanor Wise.

The Weekly Mirror and Annual Mirror were ably edited by Zoe E. Schnabel and Charles Barndt respectively.

The crowning feature of the class was the presentation of the senior class play, "The King Rides By," ably presented with the help of Mrs. Jessie Rhonemus, as director.

With the help of Miss McClurg, Eugene Broxon chose the following committees: Joe Marmon, Ed Jones, Emerson Beery, Walter Wolfe, Mary L. Bradley, Jo Smith, Betty Zimmerman, Helen Miller, Mary J. Nye, Roberta Early—dinner dance; John Watts, Jack Saunders, Alice M. Basden, Dorothy Weaver, Marjorie Taylor—invitations; Gordon Shaw, Sam Spitzer, Marguerite Stevens, William Haneke—senior play; Gordon Trethewey, Edward Burrell, Barbara Siferd, Helen Mack—graduation outfits; Robert Callahan—auditor; Zoe E. Schnabel, David Steiner, Jane Lamb, John Weldy, Ruth Rohrbacher—memorial.

Following closely upon the senior tea and dinner dance, came the climax of the achievements of the class of 1931—commencement.

The class has now turned to the future and its prospects, but it will be impossible to forget the closed pages of its high school history.

Junior Class

THE September of 1928 found a new group entering our portals. They have, during their three year sojourn in our midst, made gigantic strides. Under Miss Reed's excellent supervision, they progressed immensely in their first year. They displayed unusual talent not only in dramatics and scholarship, but also in debate, music and athletics. In fact, this class was unusually fortunate in its athletes.

Leonard Faurot, as president; William Cass, as vice president; Mabel Hinton, as secretary; and Lillian Hunter, as treasurer; ably guided the class through its first year. The representatives on the Student Council during the same year were Leonard Faurot and William Cass.

Then the next year found them back a more organized group. Their choice of officers was Leonard Faurot, president; John Sarber, vice president; Robert Vittur, secretary; and Dorothy Basinger, treasurer. This year they displayed the same eagerness and ability in almost all the extra curricular activities. Miss Howey helped them in all their trials and certainly won a big place in the hearts of each one.

This year they returned as upper classmen. As such, they took upon themselves to produce a play. "Believe It or Not," supported by an unusual cast, was well received by the student body. Then too, they feted the departing seniors with a lovely Junior Hop at Shawnee Country Club.

Miss Jones helped them to make these new undertakings a huge success. The officers: Len Faurot, president; Mabel Hinton, vice president; Dorothy Basinger, secretary; John Sarber, treasurer; also did their part in organizing the various committees and keeping up the class spirit.

The juniors were ably represented this year on both Mirror staffs.

The juniors were ably represented this year on both Mirror staffs. The class was also well represented in scholarship. Members of the class who have done exceptionally well in athletics are: George Smith, Al Gunther, Vern Rice, Bob Conoway, Robert Vittur, Lon Faurot, and Gene Turner.

The junior class of 1931 is one of the best ever found at Central High school. Great things will be expected of them next year.

Sophomore Class History

WELL, this year the class of '33 is making a name for itself in all the outside activities. To sing the praises of the sophomore class would take too much time, space, et cetera, so, to make a long story short

The class officers last year were: Franklin Young, president; Bruce Waggoner, vice president; Mary Cutter, secretary; and Martha Jackson, treasurer. This year they were: Franklin Young, president; James Brentlinger, vice president; Mary Cutter, secretary; and Helen Ann Gooding, treasurer.

In the matter of scholarship, the class of '33 has taken the lead almost every time. Those who made it so are: Mildred Ross, Helen Ann Gooding, Martha Jackson, Kent Leach, Merton Sealts, Margaret Merritt, Annette Vincent, Lloyd Reid, Neva Tucker, Mary Cutter, Merrill DeVoe, Juanita Byerly, Bettye Jane Cox, Billy Barndt, Marjorie Zimmerman, Betty Kelchner, Edna Barr, Mary Hover, Helen Fogelgren, Anna Silberman, and Helen Bohyer.

The Soph's have shown up fairly well in athletics. Though they placed third in the annual field meet, they came out on top in the inter-class basketball tournament, the Lightweights having no defeats; the girls, one, but still champions of the tourney; and the Heavyweights, three defeats. We have three members in the "C" association. They are: Franklin Young, football; James Brentlinger, football, basketball and track; and Coit Black, cheerleader. Charles Fly is our other cheerleader.

Student Council members are: Tom Taylor, Joan Baxter, Coit Black, and Merton Sealts.

Those prominent in dramatics are: Charles Condit, Helen Rakowsky, Martha Jackson, Bob Neumeier, Gail Smith, Marion Dunn, John Mitchell, Mary Cutter, Selma Mervis, Merton Sealts, Maxine Mayer, Harry Hadsell, Carolyn Wylie, Dorothy Day, George CaJacob, Mary Hover, Joan Baxter, Virginia Swisher, Louise Bessire, Franklin Young, Kathryn Feeney, Helen Parsons, Ruth Jacobs, Betty Kelchner, Margaret Leach, and Pauline Jones.

We wish to express our appreciation for the advice and guidance of Miss Howey as our class advisor.

Freshman Class History

THIS group of rising young Centralites entered the portals of Central in September, 1930. During this first year, they have acquired the true Centralite spirit and have been welcomed into our midst.

The class officers, Kade Wilkinson, president; Paul Strange, vice president; Barbara Claypoole, secretary; and Billy Guyton, treasurer, ably conducted the class through its first year.

Members on Student Council were Mary McKee and Julianne Bussert. Billy Guyton, Nancy Hover, Julianne Bussert, and Barbara Claypoole represented this class in scholastic standards by appearing on the honor roll practically every month.

In dramatic productions, James Miller and Catherine Fly displayed the talent, both of them appearing in plays by the dramatic clubs of Central. This was indeed an unusual honor. Furthermore, the class distinguished themselves almost immediately by taking third place in the annual field day.

Although only freshmen, their junior high history shows their ability to do things for Central.

Miss Reed has directed their steps well and they have adapted themselves quickly to this changed atmosphere of high school. We only hope they may continue, and improve upon their excellent record by bringing even more fame to their already famous school.

Junior High History

UNDER the leadership of Mr. C. C. Romaker, assistant principal; Miss Marie Muelbauer, seventh grade supervisor; and Miss Edna McPheron, eighth grade supervisor, Junior High school has made much progress this year.

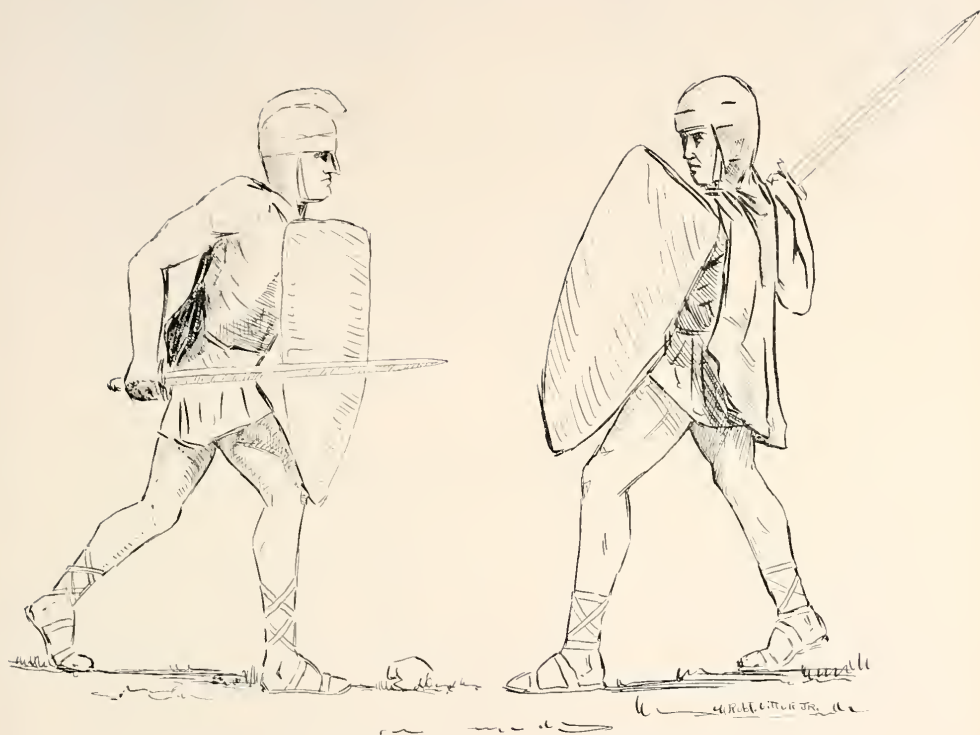

The election of class officers ended with these results: Jean Morley, president; Margaret Boyd, vice president; Shirley Kasson, secretary; Nancy Swisher, treasurer of the seventh grade; Howard Chapman, president; Virginia Price, vice president; Ralph Schell, secretary; Robert Snook, treasurer of the eighth grade. Also one student from each class was elected to represent his class in the Senior High Student Council. Those chosen were Mary Bassert from the seventh grade and Joe Dunlap from the eighth grade.

The outstanding event in Junior High is the annual operetta. This year, "The Fire Prince" was presented on December 18 and 19 in the Central High auditorium. Ruby Neese and Robert Light had the leading roles. Marjorie Ebert, Florence Weir, Betty Nellis, Phyllis Driber, Helen Armstrong, Jean Feidler, Mary Jane Gregg, Eugene Stoner, Tom Gregg, Donald Hayes, Eugene Bessire, Howard Chapman, Donald Robertson, Robert Atkinson, Judson Custer, Jack Enterline and Hugh Day also had important roles. The dramatics were under the supervision of Miss Jeannette Stuart. Miss Mabel Williams directed the music while Miss Lyda Buchanan was in charge of the dances. Margaret Bender and Nancy Hover were pianists. Between acts the junior and senior orchestras furnished music.

Junior High also took part in the annual field day, and furthermore, promises to present outstanding athletes to Senior High when its turn comes. The Junior High basketball team under Coach Steward, showed exceptional ability this year and promises many good basketball players in future years.

Many students were on the honor roll each grading period and stood high scholastically.

May we hear more of the Junior High classes in years to come.

ATHLETICS

Managers

THE managers, although seemingly unimportant to those in the grandstand, or on the bleachers, are almost invaluable to their teams. Their numerous duties include taking care of the equipment at home, seeing that it is fully packed for the trips out of town, taking care of the medicine kit, and attending to the minor injuries of the players. These, however, are only a few of the countless duties which the managers perform, but they help to show how essential these hard working boys really are to the teams.

Our football manager this year was Richard Miller; he was well liked by the boys as well as the coach from whom he took his directions. This manager gave orders to Willard Kasson, Wayne Offenbauer, John Knoop, Alva Dickey, and Warren Shook, who were his assistants.

Cleon Jacobs did the "dirty work" for the basketball team this year, but was affable through it all and was always there ready with the kit and a smile. His lesser officer, Roger Williams, did note-worthy work also.

Eugene Winks was the "power behind the throne" when it came to the track team of last season. He worked hard and unceasingly and we were more than glad to see him wear the much-coveted "C."

The baseball manager comes in for his share of credit, too, for he worked as hard as any of the rest, and his accomplishments were equally important. This post of manager was taken by Jack Koch.

Coaches

MR. UMBREIT, our head football coach, has coached the seniors since they entered Central Junior High and his services are indeed appreciated by this class especially, as well as by the whole student body.

Track is also under Coach Umbreit's supervision. The team owes much of its success to Mr. Umbreit's zealous efforts.

Mr. Scheuerman came to Central six years ago to take the position of head basketball coach. Since that time, his teams have acquired enviable records. Little was known of "Cappy" when he arrived at our Alma Mater. Now everyone knows and likes him. He led our team to the State Tournament this year. Congratulations, "Cappy."

Mr. Scheuerman also coached the cross country team which was originated this year.

Mr. Steward as the assistant football coach, brought the reserves through a successful season. The baseball team, which made an enviable record this year, was also coached by Mr. Steward. What would the school do without Jack's smiling countenance?

THE "C" Association was founded in 1922 by R. J. Theibert for the students obtaining the coveted "C" in any sport. The purpose of the association is to further clean sportsmanship in the school.

During the last two years the organization has sponsored "Dad's and Mother's" day as a guest day for the parents of the football and basketball players.

The interest has increased immensely under the guidance of E. A. Hauenstein. For nine years "Stein" has helped the members in all their undertakings. Indeed, an immense amount of credit is due to our friend, "Stein."

This year, instead of the usual dinner given for each sport, the "C" association, in co-operation with the Athletic Association, entertained with a dinner dance for the fellows of all the sports. This novel affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present.

BLUFFTON

The football season was opened September 27 when Central met the strong Bluffton eleven. Central, because of several bad "breaks," was held by Bluffton to a scoreless tie. The team was a little ragged during this game because of the inexperience of the players.

BOWLING GREEN

In the second game of the season, Central journeyed to Bowling Green where they played to a 7-7 tie.

HAMILTON

Hamilton came here to meet our boys October 11 and with a heavier team defeated us 19 to 6. Although the team fought gamely, they went down to their first defeat of the year.

DAYTON KISER

A 14-7 defeat by Dayton Kiser featured Central's fourth game of the 1930 season.

DEFIANCE

Central entertained Defiance, October 25, playing the best game they have played for two years. They completely walked away with the Defiance team. The team worked perfectly and rolled up a score of 44 to 0.

Did the line hold? It did.

FOSTORIA

Central started out in the first quarter very slowly, but opening up in the second, snowed Fostoria under with a score of 34 to 12. The game was fast throughout and was featured by many long runs.

MIDDLETOWN

On November 8, Middletown came to Central, having a team that had not been defeated to two years. Central, although out-weighted and without the services of Captain Green, fought a hard battle and held Middletown to a 6 to 6 tie.

FINDLAY

On November 15 the Dragons traveled to Findlay where they encountered the strong Findlay team. In the first quarter, Central was held scoreless, but in the third quarter the red and green dragons uncorked a furious attack. The game ended 34 to 20 in Findlay's favor, however.

South vs. Central

THE game this year was played on one of the coldest days of the season. It was a game of "breaks" as neither team could play at their best in such cold weather.

The game opened with a slow start, but the first thrill of the game was in the first quarter when Central blocked one of Vogelgesang's punts and then recovered the ball for a touchdown. In the second quarter, South playing hard ball, found a break when a kick went bad and landed in the hands of Jimmie Vogelgesang, who was standing on the fifteen yard line. He ran the fifteen yards without being touched by a Central man. With the score tied at 7-7 and only a few minutes of play left in the first half, Franklin, tried a pass to Brentlinger, but it was intercepted by Vogelgesang who ran 60 yards for a touchdown, making the score 13-7 in favor of South.

In the third quarter, Captain Green blocked a kick and ran to the five yard line, but the ball was called back and Central was penalized for off sides.

The last quarter was played with Central fighting desperately, but many fumbles delayed the game until the final gun gave South a hard fought 13-7 victory.

Touchdown!

Was that day cold!

Seven more points.

Football Squad

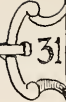

MUCH credit must be given to Coach Umbreit through whose efforts the 1931 football season terminated successfully. Day by day the team's power grew, and soon the big dragon squad developed into a team of tremendous offensive charge and impregnable defensive power.

The many needs of this squad were taken care of by the managers, who devoted much of their time to this work. As a reward, the men were presented with that much coveted "C."

The first squad met with great success during the season and passed through one of the hardest schedules Central has ever known. This big "he man" team, one of the best Central has ever produced, perfected their passes to the finest degree, and also used rushing tactics to advantage. At the end of the season Central had won all games but three.

The training that a team gets from the Reserves is one of the finest factors in producing a real football eleven. The Reserves were always on hand waiting patiently for their turn to be knocked around by the first stringers, which is not one of the easiest things to do. They also gained a reputation for themselves through their own scheduled season, and must be commended along with the first team for their splendid spirit. We hope that all these boys will be rewarded in the coming years by getting the coveted "C."

ON December 12th one of the best basketball teams ever to represent Central took the floor for their opening game against Vaughnsville. This team was to become the city champion, winner of the Big Five league, sectional champion, and district champion. Also they have the distinction of having gone further than any Lima team has ever gone.

In this opening game Central easily turned back Vaughnsville by a score of 28-14.

The next day Cridersville was defeated 31-17.

In the next week the Dragons traveled to Toledo to play the strong Woodward team. Central again came out on top by a 16-10 score.

The following day Central lost their first game of the season to Bluffton. After using the second team the first half, the first string men were unable to get started. The final score was 18-17.

After a short rest the team traveled to Portsmouth where they were again turned back by a team that was destined to become State Champions. This 20-24 score was Central's second defeat.

The next game, with Bowling Green, was played on South's floor. The Dragons hit their stride in the early part of the game and ended with a 21-13 victory.

South's floor was used the next day when Central sent Findlay home with its first defeat of the season.

The following week the Red and Green warriors traveled to Bowling Green where they again downed the Bee Gee's. This time by a 24-19 score.

Fostoria came to Lima on the 25th prepared to end Central's winning streak, but they also were sent home with a 17-22 beating.

The Central High quintet was destined to play its first South-Central game without its rightful coach, and was downed by its old rival 20-24.

With Coach Scheureman back, the boys started a 15 game streak by downing Piqua 34-10.

Traveling to Garrett, Indiana, on an overnight trip, the boys took Garrett into camp by a 22-6 score.

Then on Friday, the 13th of February, Defiance was downed 36-26.

On the following day the Dragons showed their followers what they could do when they played the best brand of ball played this year to down Dayton-Roosevelt 38-22.

The second South-Central game was a little different from the first, for the Dragons had the upper hand throughout the game and when the game was over, the Tigers were on the bottom of a 15-20 score.

On February 12, Defiance was downed in its tracks by a 25-16 score.

In the last game before the tournament, Fostoria was defeated 13-20.

When the drawings were made for the sectional tournament, South and Central were paired in one of the opening games; this battle, besides putting the loser out of the tournament, would declare the winner city champion. The Centralites played an air-tight game to win 22-20. In the semi-finals, Kenton was eliminated 38-19. In the finals Scheureman used his second string men the first half, to down Van Wert for the sectional title in a close game that ended 30-28.

In the district tournament, Central again had a drawing that looked impossible to get through. The first game was with the highly touted Norwalk team, and the winner was doubtful until the final whistle gave Central a hard earned 17-16 victory.

The second game of the tournament was with Galion. With but 10 seconds to play, and the game seemingly on ice for Galion, Schneider sank a sucker shot to win the game for Central with an 18-17 score.

The last two games of the tournament, which gave victory to Central, were with two Toledo teams, Libbey and Waite. The dragons easily downed Libbey by a 25-16 score. Over the Waite team, Central easily romped to victory and the sectional championship, with a 27-20 score.

Basketball Squad

WHAT a season the basketball squad of 1931 saw! Although only two lettermen, Moore and Brentlinger, were left from last year.

Coach Howard Scheureman had a wealth of material with which to work. With this group he built a team which has marked an epoch in athletic history of Central. Three lettermen, Faurot, Vittur, and Brentlinger, will be back next year.

The team started out "hot on the trail," and before the smoke blew away Central was sitting on top of the world, entered in the finals of Class 'A' tournament. Therefore we journeyed to Findlay to compete in the district tournament. Here we waded through the hardest schedule in the tournament, coming out district champions of Class A. Furthermore, three of the team, Moore, Brown and Brentlinger, were placed in the all Class A team.

As a result of winning the district championship, for the first time in the history of the school, the team went to Columbus to compete in the state championship. Here we eliminated our first rival, Columbus Central, in a hard fought battle. The next day we played Canton McKinley, but we were downed by the fast offensive game played by our opponents. Nevertheless, all Central knows what an exceptional team Central has, and all the students and the teachers are appreciative of its efforts.

There is one man without whose service the team probably would have not reached the height it did. That one is Coach "Cappy" Scheureman, who has put forth his best efforts in the five years that he has been at Central.

SPRING SPORTS

EUGENE BROXON

Track, 1930

TRACK at Central, although more productive of defeats than victories, can nevertheless be called a success. It was a success in that Coach Umbreit's team gave the best it had in every meet.

The Central tracksters inaugurated their season with a triangular meet against St. Marys and Van Wert. Central emerged on top with 77 points. St. Marys was second with 54 points and Van Wert was last with 6 points. In the next meet, Central was defeated by South. The score was 66-56.

In the district meet, the scores were: Toledo Waite, 48; Central, 42; Fostoria, 31; South, 23; and Findlay, 22. The Dragons then traveled to the sectional meet which was won by Mansfield with 38 points, Norwalk finishing second with 31, Central third with 28, and South trailing with 13 points.

The team will be weakened by the loss of Irwin, Droesch, and Gossard this year. Six other lettermen will return, however. These are Cottman, Zapp, Hooks, Brentlinger, Broxon, and Cook.

ALFRED ZAPP

Cross-country Track

ON September sixteenth, nineteen hundred and thirty, cross-country track was started for the first time in the history of Lima Central. Howard Scheureman was to coach this new sport. Due to his efforts, the team was a success.

The team started with twelve aspirants. These twelve began with light workouts in the gym and as they progressed, the distance they ran grew in length. Until the course had been laid out the cross-country team ran between the gym and the College field under the supervision of Coach Scheureman. Soon the two and one-half mile track was laid out, and practice was begun on it. The course began at the College field and wound around in the Homeacre addition and then back to the College field where it ended.

The success of the sport next year looks very promising, although the team will be hampered by the loss of Alfred Zapp, Louis Cook and Francis Stepleton. Dwight Newton, Jack Rutter, Carl Blackburn, Richard Kimble, and Kenneth Mowen will be back next year.

DON BOWLUS

Baseball, 1930

BASEBALL was one of the most successful of the spring sports at Central last year. When Coach Steward began to mould his team, he had a wealth of material, and his proteges did not fall short of their duty, for they won four games, lost two, and tied one.

Central opened the season with a slow start by losing to Delphos 6-9. In the next game, Kenton was held to a 5-5 tie. From there, the Dragons seemed to find their pace for in the next game they defeated Elida 20-1. Then James twirled an airtight game to defeat Columbus Grove 13-0.

In the first game with South, Central came off with flying colors in a 7-5 victory. The second time, Central defeated the Tigers by a 6-2 score.

In the final game of the season, Central was beaten by Kenton in a close game by a final score of 8-5.

Only four lettermen are leaving this year. They are Captain Bowlus, H. King, K. Hutchinson, and R. Black. There will be six others back next year. They are James, Scott, Faurot, Boyd, Lytle, and Pape.

FRED DROSCH

Golf, 1930

ONE of the most interesting and youngest sports in Central High school is golf. Two years ago, in 1929, the team consisting of Edgar Franklin, Fred Drosch, Brotherton Young, and Walter Gillette, had a fairly successful season. The first game was played with Piqua and Central's team was the victor. In the district championship games, held in Toledo, Central took seventh place from the twenty-one teams that were entered, Toledo Libbey being first. The only game played in Lima, at the Shawnee course, was with Toledo Libbey. The score was 8 to 3 in Libbey's favor. Last year, due to the fact that only Drosch and Franklin were left of the 1929 squad, no team was organized.

Cheerleaders

"HOW well the student body boosted athletics this year!" This remark was often overheard in the corridors of Central. Yet, how much credit is due the cheerleaders! They were always ready and eager to lead cheers for our battling warriors. Our staff this year was by no means devoid of talent!

Barbara Siferd, better known as Bobbie, is a veteran of four years' service. She has ably filled the position of head girl cheerleader for three years.

Coit Black is one of the members of last years' staff. In his first year as head boy cheerleader, he has shown great ability. Good luck next year, Coit!

Betty Tolford received the vote to become first assistant to Bobbie. She certainly could get that mob to yell.

Charles Fly, a novice at the game of cheerleading, was very well adapted to the work. Charley has two more years to serve us!

Kathryn Swaney, or Patty, is a freshman, but that didn't "cramp her style" in cheerleading. Back her up next year, too!

Don Zuber proved an excellent assistant, ready to do his part.

ORGANIZATIONS

Who's Who Contest

THE Who's Who contest has become a tradition at Central. Each year the Weekly Mirror, in co-operation with the Student Council, sponsors it.

This year's results with the runners up for each position were as follows: most popular girl, Barbara Siferd, Betty Tolford; most popular boy, Eugene Broxon, James Brentlinger; prettiest girl, Betty Tolford, Thelma Davis; most handsome boy, Phil Tolford, Wemmer Gooding; peppiest girl, Barbara Siferd, Jo White; peppiest boy, Coit Black, Charles Fly; funniest person, John Dimond, Sam Spitler; most sophisticated girl, Frances Dimond, Janis Lippincott; most conceited boy, Norman McConkey, Marvin Saylor; most talented boy, Merton Sealts, John Sarber; most talented girl, Zoe Emily Schnabel, Anna Florine Randolph; biggest whoopee maker, Thelma Davis, Eugene CaJacob.

On the whole, it can be said that this year's contest was by far the most successful Who's Who contest ever conducted at Central. All students entered heartily into the election and the results show good thinking on the part of the students.

The Who's Who contest always creates a great amount of interest throughout the school. May the contest continue in years to come.

Quill and Scroll

IN 1928 the Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists, granted a charter to Central High. The aim of this organization is to create higher standards of journalism among the high schools of the United States.

Candidates for this honor must not only be good journalists, but must also have high scholastic standing and must be approved by the faculty advisors. Their work on the different publications may either be in the way of business or literary endeavors.

The charter members at Central are William Bannister, Grace Karr, Howard Everett, Ruth Bessire, Henry Hilty, Goldie Kenegsberg, Raymond Kurtz, and John Thomas.

The members of 1929 were Eloise Brown, Charles Clark, Margaret Davidson, David Evans, Geraldine Offenhauer, Dorothy Ridenour, John Wittenbrook and Mona Vittur.

Those taken into this honorary association last year were Fred Eckford, Alice Hilty, Mary Hover, Oneeta Moree, Charles Barndt, Laurence Larsen, Mona Vittur, Althea DeKalb, Don Bowlus, and Furman Miller.

This year's members were Charles Barndt, Alice Custer, Bob Long, Zoe E. Schnabel, and Sam H. Spittler.

The Annual

THE Annual Mirror, completely organized and edited each year by the student body of Central, demands a great deal of time and effort which is difficult to realize or appreciate. One can hardly conceive how zealously the entire staff has labored throughout the year to make this annual edition a success.

It is by means of this book that many high school students first become interested in journalism and it is for this reason that much stress is put upon its publication.

Charles Barndt ably filled the position of editor in chief this year. He was well assisted by Robert Long as business manager, Jo Smith as assistant editor, Alice Custer as senior business manager, and William Barndt as advertising manager.

Miss Gladys Riggs as the editorial advisor and Mr. H. C. Heffner as the business advisor, willingly gave their time, suggestions, and co-operation. Their aid was greatly appreciated.

The Mirror

THIS weekly publication was really a bi-weekly one. The staff, with the aid of Miss Laura Jamison, made a success of their endeavors this year. Miss Jamison created the Journalism Class in which the students become more talented in the art of journalism. This class published the "Mirror" this year.

Perhaps the best or rather the most exciting issue was the "Slander Sheet." Of course, this caused quite a hubbub among the students.

Then, too, the special editions at Thanksgiving and Commencement were indeed a credit to the staff. Also the "Who's Who" Contest was conducted under the auspices of the "Weekly Mirror." You all remember Noah Tention's articles which were a source of amusement to everyone.

Zoe Emily Schnabel, editor-in-chief, should receive much praise for her labors. She, in co-operation with Henry Enck, business manager and Merton Sealts, advertising manager, worked industriously and silently to obtain honors for the publication.

THIS worthy body of student solons was organized in 1927. The duties of this ruling body are numerous and intricate, but are ably handled by the student representatives.

There are twenty-two members consisting of one seventh grader, one eighth grader, two freshmen, four sophomores, six juniors and eight senior representatives elected by their respective classes.

The duties of the council are organizing honor study halls, formulating programs for assemblies, regulating hall patrol, organizing and authorizing all new clubs, sponsoring student activity tickets, which is new this year, sponsoring follies, aiding the Weekly Mirror in the "Who's Who" contest, publishing the Handbook, considering all petitions of students, and various other minor duties. Its year is full of constructive work for Central.

THE DRAMA

THE Troubadourian Dramatic Society was organized in 1916 for those interested in dramatics. It has become prominent through the zealous efforts of Mrs. Rhonemus, the supervisor. Interesting programs of short plays, readings, discussions and impersonations are presented at each meeting. The program committee consists of Gordon Shaw, Catherine Nottingham, Selma Mervis, Mary Louise Bradley, Janis Lippincott, Martha Jackson, William Haneke, Anna Florine Randolph, Virginia Swisher, Ida Goldin, Pauline Jones and Gretchen Marvin.

The annual play this year, "Call of the Banshee," was a very clever and interesting mystery farce which was received with hearty approval.

"The First Dress Suit," a one-act play, presented in the annual Troubadour mass meeting, finished the activities.

IN 1924, the Masqueraders Club was formed at Central with the aim to further interest in dramatics. This year the club, under the direction of Miss Jeanette Stuart, has been successful in fulfilling its aim.

At the weekly meetings, one-act plays and readings were given. As a climax to a successful year, the Masqueraders presented "Wild Ginger," a very entertaining three-act comedy.

The program committee included Joan Baxter as chairman, Nelda Orth, John Mitchell, and Mary Erma Hadsell; the mass meeting play committee was composed of Geraldine Miller, Ruth Jacobs, Henrietta Dunlap, and Bob Neumeier; the annual play committee consisted of Carolyn Wylie, James Mitchell, Catherine Fly, Charles Eckert, and Doris Winegardner.

Troubadourian Play

HOW excellently "The Call of the Banshee" was portrayed. Each person aided in his way to add mystery and excitement to the farce. Martha Jackson and Jack Sanders as Hazel Orper and Clem Durward were the romantic leads. Can anyone forget Charles Condit, the Indian, alias the Banshee, with his menagerie? And the character, Peter Adair, whose fortune everyone wanted, taken by Richard Taylor. What a portly gentleman he made and yet how quick tempered. Then, too, the hard hearted, vicious Mrs. Grimes was aptly portrayed by Barbara Siferd. Gordon Shaw, as Doctor Lacy, worked hard to obtain Peter's fortune. However, he was slain by the Banshee before he accomplished his deed. Weirdness was added by William Haneke, as Tom Scott, a deaf lunatic. Then Blanche, the colored maid in the Adair home, was excellently portrayed by Pauline Jones. She and Tibby, her mother, or in real life, Selma Mervis, added comedy to the mystery. Dr. Markowitz, Peter Adair's physician and confidant, helped a great deal in unraveling the plot. The part was played by Merton Sealts. The parts of Joan Walters and Hilda, her maid, were taken by Madge Brown and Ida Goldin respectively. Abner Heckenshell, the sheriff and Walter Payne, his deputy, did their best to solve the mystery. John Dimond and Jack Rutter were hilarious riots in these parts. Linda Perkins, Tom Scott's fiancée, was no other than Anna Florine Randolph.

The play takes place in the Adair home. Peter Adair made his will and gave a copy of it and a key to the safe where it was kept, to Dr. Markowitz, his advisor. Dr. Lacy, Peter's cousin, is always trying to find out to whom Peter had left his fortune. Mrs. Grimes, the housekeeper, is also worried about the will. One night while Peter is looking over his will, the Call of the Banshee is heard and Peter suddenly falls dead. The will cannot be found and so Dr. Lacy, being the nearest relative, is the heir. He wants Hazel to come away with him. While he is trying to persuade Hazel, the Call is again heard and the doctor dies. Hazel does not know how he was killed, all remain dumbfounded. Then Zuru, while attempting to kill Hazel, is captured and confesses to the killings. The play ends happily for all.

This dramatic production ranks among the most outstanding which has ever been presented at Central.

Masqueraders Play

“WILD GINGER” was the play presented by the Masqueraders’ Club. Dramatically and financially, the play was a success. Mary Cutter played the feminine lead as “Virginia Tallman” known as “Wild Ginger,” a little slum girl who was very miserably treated by her stingy old father, Jake Tallman, played by James Mitchell. Franklin Young played opposite her as Geoffrey Freeman, a wealthy young man recently returned from Europe. James Miller gave an excellent performance as Wuzzy Walker, a would-be chiropractor. Excellent support was given them by Arthur Benjamin as Sanford Lakey, a man of extravagant habits; John Mitchell as Marwood Lakey, his son, and Catherine Fly as Berneita Lakey, his daughter, both pampered young snobs. Geraldine Miller as Miss Rachel Lee, Ginger’s best friend; Bob Neumeier as Mr. Peterson, a middle-aged store-keeper; Mary Emma Hadsell as Miss Stanley, the health nurse; and Henel Rakowsky as Miss Walker, Wuzzy’s mother.

The play takes place first at Mr. Peterson’s grocery, and then at the Tallman shack. It revolves around ignorant, under-fed little Virginia. She starts out by winning a fly-swatting contest conducted by Miss Stanley. Then Mr. Lakey steals the tin box of her father’s valuables. Jake finds out about this and in a fit of anger, strikes Virginia down, almost breaking her arm. Ginger is afraid she will be unable to swim in the university scholarship race, but she does, and wins a scholarship. While Virginia is making good at the university, her father reforms, and buys a new home and car. Virginia comes home after being crowned “Miss America,” and finds her long-lost mother, and Geoffrey, who had been waiting patiently for her during her lust for education.

It was very well staged under the able direction of Miss Jeanette Stuart, the club’s advisor. Joan Baxter and Charles Eckert were business and property managers. Many said that it was the best play ever presented at Central, but although the Troubadours dispute that honor, the Masqueraders feel well repaid for their efforts.

EVERY year the event of the junior class play is eagerly awaited by the students of Central high school. This year the class of 1932 presented "Believe It or Not," a three-act comedy. The play centered around Betty Jane Brown, as Harriet Follis, and her difficulty in finding a suitor. Hildreth Kuhn was charming as Harriet's "boy friend," and Robert Miller was a pleasing "maid." After many amusing complications, it was found that James Williams, as Cuthbert Jackson, was the right suitor and all the difficulties were overcome.

Minor characters were portrayed by James Mitchell, Mary Waggoner, Howard Porter, Ida Goldin, Roger Andrews, Mabel Hinton, Gretchen Marvin, and Katherine Nottingham.

"Believe It or Not" was a huge success and much credit is due Mrs. Rhonemus, who directed the play.

RESOLVED: That Chain Stores are detrimental to the best interests of the United States Public.

NOT least among the activities that gained new distinction this year, is debate. Central may well be proud of its debaters, for through diligent work and conscientious efforts they have had a very successful season. The affirmative team opened the year by debating with Bluffton, but due to the inexperience of the team, Lima lost. However, in the remaining two debates, Lima affirmative won the decision over Hicksville and Fostoria.

The negative's first debate was won by a forfeit from Defiance, but the team showed its ability to debate by defeating Findlay and Bluffton in fast and furious onslaughts.

Having won five out of six debates, the team was tied for sectional championship with Bluffton. An added debate was necessary to pick the winner. The lots were cast and it was found that Central's negative was to have the chance to win the title for the school. In a rapid and very interesting debate at Pandora, Central defeated Bluffton.

For the first time in the history of the school, the debaters had become sectional champions.

In the district tournament, Lima's affirmative drew Gibsonburg's negative, but was defeated. However, being winners of the district championship, the Central debaters of 1930-1931 have set the standard so high that future teams will find it a difficult task to surpass them.

The two teams were composed of Louise Hover as first speaker, Leota Beeler as second, and Howard Porter as third on the affirmative; Kent Leach as first speaker, Charles Barndt as second, and Gordon Shaw as third on the negative.

The coaches were Mr. Stanley Boylan, Miss Gayle Howey, Miss Grace Fishbaugh and Mrs. Gwen Jones Pence.

THE Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs under the supervision of Mr. C. J. Broadhead, head of the music department, presented "Robinhood, Inc." The action takes place in a glade in Sherwood Forest during the reign of Richard the Lion-Hearted in the twelfth century. The king's part was taken by Troy Beldon. Robin Hood, the rightful Earl of Huntington, whose part was taken by Richard Whittington, is the victim of the Lord High Sheriff of Nottingham, whose part was taken very ably by Charles Barndt. Ben Booster, a promoter five hundred years before his time, tries to induce our hero to put this outlaw business on a capital basis. Although Gordon Shaw, taking the role of Ben, tries hard to convince Robin this is the thing to do, Robin doesn't weaken. Robin remains in the forest, righting the wrongs of Prince John until Richard returns to the throne. The king then rewards Robin, at the end of the play, by reuniting him and his true love, Maid Marian. The demure role of Maid Marian was portrayed by Laura Louise Walters. Minor characters were:

			UTAH	-	-			Ronald	Cook

THE Senate, under the supervision of Mr. Boylan, is one of the oldest and most successful clubs at Central. It was originally founded to promote public speaking, but at the present time it has many activities. A great number of the members take part in varsity and interclass debate.

There are always two annual events of the senate, the annual Senate-House debate and the Assembly program.

This year they put on one of the most interesting and unusual programs Central has ever seen. It was a mock trial concerning the alleged kidnapping of John Julius Reuthe from the front steps, by Brice Applas. During the developing of the case, which was modeled after a real trial, many startling facts were brought out which resulted in the liberation of the defendant. This instructive and humorous trial was greatly appreciated by the student body.

THE House of Representatives, the political club of the school, was organized in 1921 under the direction of Mrs. Pence, but at the present time it is under the supervision of Miss Fishbaugh. Since its organization it has become more and more active in the fields of political science, debating and discussions of current problems. For instance, this year the club has studied such questions as Unemployment, the 18th Amendment, the Infancy Bill, Women in Industry, Russia's Five Year Plan, and problems concerning India. Many interesting debates were also held, among which were: Resolved that the military training as generally conducted in colleges and universities should be abolished; Resolved that debating as generally conducted in American high schools is detrimental; Resolved that Ohio should adopt an unemployment insurance; etc.

The annual Senate-House Debate was an outstanding event at which each debating society tried to humble the other. During the year the club conducted various social activities, among which were a Valentine Tea, St. Patrick's day dinner, and numerous parties.

THE Boys' Glee, under the direction of Mr. C. J. Broadhead, has just completed its sixteenth year. Throughout this period of time, it has improved immensely. Membership is determined by tryouts, Mr. Broadhead choosing the successful applicants.

The club has given many programs such as singing before teachers' meeting, student assembly, churches, and other school and civic organizations. They also entered the Eisteddfod this year.

The regular meeting is held on Tuesday during the sixth period, but on Monday, Thursday and Friday, it meets with the Girls' Glee Club.

Interest is increasing every year with the success due to the genial co-operation of all the members.

THE Girls' Glee Club, one of the oldest organizations at Central, was organized in 1914. Its purpose is to further interest in music among the girls. Under the fine supervision of Mr. C. J. Broadhead, the girls attained an important position among the clubs this year. The membership to this club is gained through tryouts.

The regular meeting is held on Wednesday, the sixth period, but on Monday, Thursday, and Friday it meets with the Boys' Glee.

During the past year, the girls have presented programs before the student body, teachers' meetings and churches. Its members also entered the Eisteddfod.

Senior Orchestra

THE Central senior orchestra, under the direction of C. J. Broadhead, has this year been one of the best since the founding of this organization in 1910. The principal activity for the group was the annual Eisteddfod, held in Ada, in which Central made a fine showing against the five other schools participating. The orchestra also played for many extra-curricular activities.

The junior orchestra, a comparatively new organization, also deserves much praise for its work. Although not participating in many activities, this group is very worth while as its members will soon make up the senior orchestra.

MR. BROADHEAD, through this medium, gives the younger and more inexperienced musicians a chance to display their talent. These students graduate to the senior orchestra when they become skilled enough. By diligent practice and by Mr. Broadhead's patient instruction, these musicians have gained much credit during the past year.

They are not allowed to enter any Eisteddfod and do not appear very often in a public performance. However, much credit must be given these rising musicians.

“TO create, maintain, and extend throughout the town and community high standards of Christian living” is the motto and ideal of all the members of the senior Hi-Y club of Central high school. Under the direction of Mr. Overmire, the club has prospered well this year and has succeeded in extending its ideals throughout the student body.

The membership, which is open to any junior or senior boy who can prove himself worthy, is composed of the finest type of boyhood in the school.

This organization is forty years old and is each year improving and approaching nearer the ideals set down by its slogan.

THE Blue Triangle Club, organized from the Girl Reserves of the Y. W. C. A., is one of the most successful in promoting friendship among the girls of high school age. It tries to show to all the girls the road to health and happiness.

This year a new plan was inaugurated in order to create a greater interest in the work among the younger girls. There were four branches formed—one for freshmen, one for sophomores, one for juniors, and one for seniors. Each of these meets separately once a month and meets together once a month.

Many members are sent each year to a mid-winter conference. Here plans are made and problems discussed. Each representative brings back many excellent ideas for her group.

The inner circle is composed of all the members who have lived up to the code "to face life squarely and to find and give the best." These girls in the inner circle are chosen by the members at large and are presented with the Girl Reserve Ring at the end of each club year.

THE Girls Welfare Club, founded by Miss Drusilla Reilly in 1913, is the oldest club in Central high school. The work of the club, as the name signifies, is purely welfare. Baskets are distributed at Thanksgiving and Christmas, and during the year money and help are given to some charitable cause. One of the services of the organization this year was the collection of books to be used for those unable to purchase their own.

A great amount of the work of the club is done at the regular meetings, yet at various times throughout the year, there are programs given over to entertainment, luncheons, discussions of welfare, or other interesting topics.

A vote of gratitude is extended to Miss Reilly who has devoted much of her time to furthering the activities of this club.

THE Home Economics Club was a new experiment at Central High this year. Miss Mendenhall, head of the home economics department, ably supervised the work of this "Infant Protege." The subject of the year's study, which proved to be of much interest to the members, was modern day styles. Even though this is the club's first year, judging from the success of the year, we believe that the permanency of its future is assured.

MISS DEPUTY, feeling that Central needed a club to train future citizens, formed this organization three years ago. The meetings were conducted informally. Often a speaker was secured and after his talk the whole club carried on a discussion.

This year, twenty-three members of the club dressed dolls, which were given to the Christmas Mother.

The prosperity of the club is due to the untiring efforts of its supervisor, Miss Deputy.

THE Biology Club was organized to promote interest in human beings, plants and animals in relation to their surroundings. From the time it was organized, part of the members have been working on some secret project which will some day be revealed. The other members have been reading stories of animal and plant life.

Miss Linnell has willingly co-operated with the students of the club to make its programs interesting and successful.

THE Aviation Club has just completed its second successful year. Mr. Stoner, founder and supervisor of the club, instructs the members in the fundamentals of flying. In the elections, Edwin Moyer was chosen president and Roger Andrews, secretary. These two, with Mr. Stoner, obtained speakers for the meetings and also planned special excursions to the airport. Central can indeed be proud of this small group of would-be aviators.

AT the request of some students, Mr. Stoner founded this club for would-be airplane builders. As yet, it is in its infancy, but its progress thus far has been remarkable. The members built flying models, which were obtained from George D. Wanner and Company, of Dayton, and were issued under the direction of the "American Boy Monthly," and scale models whose dimensions came from prints in the "Popular Science Magazine" and "The American Boy." Each member of the club is expected to make at least one model during the year.

THE Commercial Club which is sponsored by Mr. C. R. DeLong is one which has had a variable and enviable program throughout the year. Any student taking a commercial subject is eligible for membership. The programs are filled to the brim with enjoyable, educational subjects. Talks by business men on such valuable topics as counterfeiting, modern office machines and equipment, business relations, etc., are given during the meeting. Plays, spelling contests and mathematical contests add interest to the programs.

Two outstanding features on the schedule were the Commercial Club party and the Commercial contest. Both were a huge success this year.

Mr. DeLong and other Commercial teachers deserve much credit for their untiring efforts in helping to make the club a success.

Into the entrance to our company, we have endeavored to build certain symbolic meanings—to create, in the minds of all who enter, the thought that here is an organization pledged to certain ideals—the greatest of which is SERVICE.

Our clients tell us that our service is better . . . that our art work has that certain indefinable touch . . . that our photographs portray product detail more clearly . . . that our engravings show faithful reproduction.

To be successful, work which we do must have behind it the idealism of the old Guilds whose members forgot selfish interests in the determination that, regardless of the size of the job, every piece should be of the highest quality.

Some day soon, enter The Doorway to Service and visit us. In our many departments, you will see for yourself the exceptional talent we have gathered together to advance the pictorial excellence of your company's publicity.

You are welcome anytime . . . may we expect you?

THERE are few hard tasks left in the home which electricity cannot do at trifling cost.

American women are becoming more and more alert to the possibilities of utilizing the service of electricity—a service well within the reach of the average household's income.

Time-saving, labor-saving electricity is releasing women from drudgery, giving them time for other things.

A woman who does anything which a little electric motor can do works for 3¢ an hour.

A GUIDE TO HISTORICAL PARIS

Notre Dame: Where Pirkle remarked that the backfield didn't look quite up to the last's.

The Louvre: Famous for the record set up by Bill Heneke, July 19th, 1924, who covered the whole thing in six minutes, eighteen and two-fifths seconds without the aid of wooden starting blocks.

The Bastille: In front of this, exactly two months ago, a French taxi-driver was satisfied with the tip Chas. Barndt gave him.

Place De La Concorde: Within three hundred yards of this historic spot one can get a good cocktail.

The Tuileries: On the sidewalk in front of it an American, Bob Long, asked a stranger how to get to the Rue D'Alger, and the stranger turned out to be an actual Parisian.

HIS DREADFUL ERROR

Sid Benjamin rushed into the drug store, wild-eyed, shaking a little bottle under the clerk's nose.

"Here, you idiot," he exclaimed: "see what you've done! I asked for quinine and you gave me prussic acid by mistake!"

"Is that so?" answered Virgil Montague, calmly. "Then you owe me twenty-five cents more."

"Do you know my dear," said Chas. B., "there is something wrong with that cake? It doesn't taste right."

"That's all your imagination," answered Alice C., "for it says in my new cookery book that it is delicious."

Jane Lamb: I can see a spider web in the corner, Ethel! To what do you attribute that?

B. Siferd: To a spider, ma'am.
